

THE PIOCHE WEEKLY RECORD.

VOL. 11.

PIOCHE, NEVADA, FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1900.

NO. 1.

LINCOLN COUNTY RECORD.

The above name will take the place of the Pioche Weekly Record as soon as the headline is received, so for the first few issues this paper will come out as of old, as The Pioche Weekly Record. Unlike most papers it does not start out with the intention of running first in the interest of the public, but will be run in the interest of the Proprietor and what he can make out of it. It will aim to give all the news that can be gathered and published the same when known to be true, and when such news will be of some material interest to its readers. Further than this it knoweth not.

H. E. Freudenthal,
Proprietor.

DELAMAR DOTS.

Eight buildings in course of construction.
New Hay is beginning to arrive at Delamar.
Some of our calamity wailers have left. Good riddance.
Kiernan makes tri-weekly trips to Delamar, with fine peaches, & etc.
Supt. James Healy returned from Idaho Friday, and reports a pleasant trip.
Joe Vietti is doing a rushing business at the old stand at the lower levels.
Some Delamar real estate has changed hands recently at a fairly good figure.
Everything is running smoothly at the Delamar mill and mine under Supt. Swindlers, management, and his efficient foreman.
Harry Turner our genial County Recorder paid us a flying visit during the week. He was accompanied by Mrs. Caroline Frei, of Pioche.

The D. L. Wertheimer Co. are selling their dry goods, clothing and boots and shoes below cost. If you try them you will surely buy.
The delinquent list for the second semi-annual payment of taxes in Delamar will be small this year. This indicates a good condition of affairs.
Miss Maggie Clinton always keeps the finest and freshest of candies in the town. Also a good cigar. Fresh oranges and lemons received daily.

Our new school trustees have not as yet intimated who the new staff of teachers will be. Much interest is felt in the matter and no doubt there will be some changes.

Geo. C. Fetterman, was reminded by one of our local wags that he had his steed hitched into the buggy wrong end to the other day, while trying to persuade the horse up the street.

Whereas supplies the town with ice at 3 cts a pound. A luxury in these parts.
No move has yet been taken to celebrate the 4th and no doubt the only amusement here will be a dance in the afternoon for the children and a Grand Ball at night at Vietti Hall.

McMurphy & Banovich keeps first class Red Top on ice.

W. J. Dooley dropped into the burg during the week and will remain for some time attending to the closing up of the business here. He reports everything at Stateline prosperous.

Spiro is a good mixer these hot days.

D. L. Wertheimer, Co. are removing their large iron warehouse from the rear of their store to a good location on Main st. and rumor has it that Ed. Hing will open a restaurant there in.

For a bargain in jewelry try Mrs. J. Straus.

Flooring for the Purtscher & Vietti hall arrived yesterday and the old hall so well and favorably known will again awake after two and one half years of idleness and resume its former activity.

A. Veitch keeps a good stock of Harness, Saddles, whips and all articles pertaining to teaming.

P. Salmanson has a fine stock of mens summer underwear on hand.

Warm days and cool nights.

Geo. C. Fetterman is doing a rushing business in the new stand at the P. O. Block. Geo. won't down and within the next few months he will fully restock, and doing a larger business than before.

Quite a number of our citizens were handed checks for their losses incurred by the recent fire by Mr. McNamee during the week. The insurance companies seem to be prompter than usual on this occasion.

Rumor has it that something of a sensational nature is likely to leak out in the near future, which will involve a young lady and gentleman quite prominent in society circles here. A breach of promise suit is not the least thing likely to occur.

Whitehead, Miles & Co for cheap groceries, dry goods, boots & shoes.

B. C. McDough, left here suddenly Wednesday with his little brother en route to Salt Lake city. The little fellow was threatened with an attack of fever, and under the Dr. advice he was taken to the city. We trust that the change will benefit him that he will soon recover.

Mike Cohen understands the kind of Gents furnishing goods to keep in stock.

Since the fire the restaurants seem to be doing a rushing business, and rumor has it that "China Dick" better known as Ed Hing intends to build again and resume business on a larger scale than before. Ed is a good man for the business and will make it stick again.

Wm. Stevens measures you for a suit of clothes and insures a fit at a reasonable figure.

Jerry Ahern is again started in the old stand, but with more commodious building, and has already got back nearly all his boarders. Jerry's house had a reputation of giving the best the market could afford heretofore, and no doubt under the new conditions he will do well.

John Justi sell the cheapest beer in town.

John Roeder is removing the Roeder & Eisenmann store building from Deerlodge to Delamar. Mr. Roeder was the heaviest loser by the fire in Delamar, but takes the matter in a philosophical way and intends building and the resuming of business. We need a few more such men in Delamar.

Palmer's Restaurant is always in good shape and customers have kind attention and good meals.

The DeLamar Co. is again grinding out its three hundred tons daily but cannot keep the ore chutes empty. Evidently the Delamar mine looks better now than for years, and it seems no effort to keep the mill going. For the past two Sundays the miners had a lay off, something which no doubt they enjoyed, on account of the ore chutes being full.

Benj. Sanders can be found at J. Nesbitt's Store to attend to any legal or Notary work.

Supt. Swindler, during the past month has made it a point to do everything possible to assist the fire sufferers, in rebuilding, and preparing for business again, and his kindness and courtesies in this connection were greatly appreciated by everyone. Unlike a good many camps however the citizens of Delamar, have met their losses bravely and with that fortitude that is characteristic of American people. A few of the sufferers had a little money laid away for such an emergency, and those that did not only want an opportunity to make it again.

In Ahmedabad, India a place of 60,000 people, over 600 died in the course of a week from cholera.

Silver and Lead is on the rise, and no doubt the present war in China has something to do with it. We can stand the rise without any kick.

Brg—Gen Chaffee, the hero of El Caney is to command the United States forces in the Chinese Empire.

Admiral Dewey has asked to be assigned to the charge of some squadron to go to China.

The Brooklyn sails from Cavite with 300 marines to go to Taku, and she will be followed by the transports Logan with the Ninth Infantry and the United States gunboat Princeton.
